WASATCH ROLLER DERBY

Salt Lake City, Utah

Wasatch Roller Derby (WRD) was formed in 2008 with the intent to create a travel team and a non-profit organization focused on giving back to the local community. Wasatch Roller Derby has grown from the mere vision of two individuals to a league of 50 skaters, many dedicated volunteers, and the most amazing officials crew! In the six years that WRD has been in existence they have grown from one travel team to an "A" and a "B" travel team and 3 home teams.

Some of Wasatch Roller Derby's accomplishments include: their first public bout April 25, 2009, where they raised approximately $1,500 for the Utah chapter of the American Diabetes Association. From there, the league continued to grow and in June 2010 Wasatch Roller Derby was accepted into the Women's Flat Track Derby Association.

In 2010, WRD also secured its own practice venue and focused on its next goal, WFTDA (then-called regional) Playoffs. In 2012, after a hard fought season including an amazing series of games at Boise's Spudtown Knockdown tournament, the season ended with an invite to Oakland for the WFTDA Western Regional Playoffs. In 2013, WRD headed to the WFTDA Division 1 Playoffs in Fort Wayne, Indiana, and now Wasatch Roller Derby is elated to be hosting a Division 1 Playoff tournament in Salt Lake City this year.
